

About Greene & Associates

Greene & Associates is spearheaded by Angela L. Greene, a seasoned trial attorney with more than twenty years' experience arguing – and winning – cases for both the plaintiff and defense. In addition to representing insurance companies and corporate clients, Greene & Associates has accumulated an impressive track record representing plaintiffs in personal injury lawsuits, including auto accidents, defective products, medical & pharmaceutical errors, wrongful termination, aviation accidents, nursing home neglect and abuse, drug and medical device recalls, wrongful death and catastrophic injuries. Greene & Associates offers personalized attention to every case and preparation as if every case may go to trial – delivering winning results in the courtroom. The firm serves the greater Cincinnati and northern Kentucky region from their office located in Florence, Ky. For more information, visit www.greene-law.com.

Company Background

- Angela Greene established her own legal practice in 1995 when she left a position as a corporate attorney in a large firm to pursue a career in the courtroom as a trial attorney for personal injury cases.
- Since 1995, she has tried numerous cases for corporate and insurance clients as well as plaintiff personal injury suits.
- The newly named Greene & Associates handles corporate and insurance liability defense cases as well as personal injury lawsuits in the following fields: medical malpractice, medical and pharmaceutical error, drug and medical device product recall, product defect and product liability, nursing home abuse and neglect, auto, truck, motorcycle and aviation accidents, wrongful death and catastrophic injury, wrongful termination, employment and labor law.
- Angela L. Greene has a near-perfect win record in the courtroom, winning numerous defense verdicts and millions of dollars in awards on behalf of the plaintiffs.

About Angela L. Greene

Angela L. Greene earned a Juris Doctor and graduated with distinction from the University of Kentucky law school and is a candidate of the prestigious Order of the Coif honor society. Greene spent several years working in the corporate arena with national law firms such as Taft, Stennius & Hollister in Cincinnati, Ohio, and Carlton & Fields in Tampa, Fla., before pursuing a career in the courtroom in 1995. For the last 20 years, Greene has prepared and tried cases in liability defense and personal injury lawsuits, earning a near-perfect record of winning verdicts on both sides of the bar.

Her noteworthy accomplishments include:

- The first female attorney in the state of Kentucky with less than 10 years of experience to receive the coveted Martindale-Hubbell AV™ peer rating
- The first female attorney to try a civil case before a jury in Adams County, Ohio (and winning the case)
- Holding the record for the top verdict won by a female attorney in Lawrence County, Ohio

Greene's proclivity for competition was born on the basketball court when she played basketball for her hometown high school. She later aspired to walk onto the U of KY Women's Basketball team, fulfilling a long-time personal goal. Today, Greene puts her competitive spirit to work for her clients, whether plaintiff or defendant, and personally handles the key components of each case she takes, from investigation to presentation to a jury in the courtroom. She's a passionate advocate for her clients and her winning track record is the result.

